Teacher's Day celebration Date: 5th September, 2018

Teaching, the profession that creates all other professions and teachers as mentors, can mould students into future leaders. Teachers' Day in India is celebrated on 5 September every year to commemorate the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan - the First Vice President of India, a renowned scholar and an educationist at heart.

On 5th September, 2018, the students of Narula Institute of Technology celebrated the day with their teachers and expressed love, gratitude and the special role that teachers play in their lives. The students have also organised a small cultural programme and a live portrait making of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan followed by felicitation programme.

International Yoga Day 21st June 2019

The ancient Indians believed that our body is a temple. They practiced yoga as a means of celebrating and maintaining the body and the mind. Yoga is an ancient physical, mental and spiritual practice that has its roots in India.

The word YOGA means to add - practicing ASANAS adds positive quality to our mental and physical existence.

To celebrate the day of mental peace and good health, 21st June is celebrated as an INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY and we, NSS Unit, the students, faculty and staff members of Narula Institute of Technology, celebrate this day each year with great gusto.

This year we celebrated this auspicious day with the yoga instructor Ms. Madhu Goyel, Faculty, Art of Living.

More than 280 participants joined and did the asanas enthusiastically. Among them more than 25 faculty and staff members also performed the asanas.
